

Kinetrol Special Engineered Ball Valves

Kinetrol has developed its own range of special engineered ball valves featuring UHMWPE seats for use in demanding applications, especially abrasive media such as slurry.

Designed for high cycle reliability and durability this range of ball valves complements Kinetrol's range of actuators and associated control units to give a complete actuated valve package.

Please contact Kinetrol for more information.